

Martin City Students Win Elks Essay Contest

Four Martin City Middle School students were selected as regional winners in the 2011 Elks Lodge, "Why I am Proud to be an American" essay contest. Each of them will be recognized and presented a savings bond certificate by the Grandview Elks Lodge on Saturday, May 1. Their submissions were required to be no more than 250 words and had to be typed or written legibly.

The winning students were Jesse Fuller (7th grade, 1st Place-$100 savings bond), Dalton Palmer (7th grade, 2nd Place-$50 savings bond) and Rebecca Fleming, 7th grade, and Aariah Vaughn, 6th grade, (3rd Place winners-$25 savings bond).

