

GHS Competes In Young Women Science/Mathematics Challenge

Grandview High School's Math and Science Club sponsored eight students to compete at Avila University's 21st annual Science & Mathematics Challenge for Young Women on October 29th. The day proved successful for GHS as two teams each placed 2nd in their divisions. The GHS Chemistry team consisting of Brittney Willingham, Alexis McDaniel, and Imani Seawood, placed 2nd against eight other teams, and the GHS Computer Technology team consisting of Rachel Evans, Alexis McDaniel, and Madaly Avila also placed 2nd against eight other teams.

Other students competing for GHS were Kelsee Gardner, Jordan Kirk, and Destiny Monroe. Coaches for the team were Patti Lindquist and Linda Whitford. The young ladies competed against teams from St. Theresa's Academy, Blue Valley High School, Liberty High School, Liberty North High School, Oak Park High School, Norte Dame de Sion, and St. Paul Lutheran High School.
