

GHS FCCLA Students Recognized At Regional Conference

Thirty Grandview High School Family, Career and Community Leaders of America (FCCLA) student members attended the October 13 Regional 14 Conference held in Lee's Summit, MO. Tacora Burton, Mariah Jones, Tameka Kerns and Shaletta Norwood received 3rd Place for their participation in the Newspaper Fashion Design Contest. Ver'Nisha Carney, Darion Clemons, Ashlee Coleman, Shanita Frazier, Darionne Hardaway, Mylisa Holley, Breeana Humphrey, Mariah Jones, Bria Madge and Aresnia Valentin received 2nd Place for their participation in the t-shirt design contest.

The students also received the opportunity to attend a motivational speaker seminar and to participate in several activities at the meeting. Ver'Nisha Carney, GHS junior and Region 14 Vice President, assisted in the planning and execution of the conference. The GHS FCCLA is led by Stephanie Kruppa, GHS Family and Consumer Sciences Teacher. You can learn more about the FCCLA at www.fcclainc.org.

