

Meadowmere Student Sets Mid-Continent Summer Reading Record

Meadowmere student Isabell Heller (5th grade) was the outstanding reader of the summer. Additionally, she was the second highest reader in the Mid-Continent three-county system. Meadowmere Elementary also broke the 2011 Grandview Mid-Continent Library summer reading record by having 82 student participants. Including Meadowmere, the total Grandview C-4 summer reading participation was 258; Conn-West (60), Belvidere (49), Butcher-Greene (35) and Martin City (32).

The Grandview summer reading program promotion and organization was performed by Karen Hunter (Grandview Branch Library Assistant) with assistance from GC-4 teachers and staff Linda Lucas, Jennifer Belk, Mary Ann Toohey, Andrea Carr, Jennifer Esfandiary, Marsha Parker, Sandi Lantini, Evelyn Jones, Donna Wyatt, Millicent Connor, Dorothy Walk, Nelly Rincones, and Whitney Hamlin.
