

GHS Receives Second Place In Youth Leadership Summit

The Grandview High School team of Chloe White, Rekailla Turner, Brittney Willingham, and Chauneisha Webster were awarded second place for their video entry in the 2011 US Federal Reserve sponsored Youth Leadership Summit Video Contest. The students are members of the GHS Future Business Leaders of America (FBLA) and were led by GHS instructors Venus Webster (GHS FBLA Sponsor) and Kerry Coombe (GHS DECA Sponsor).

Their participation included the opportunity to visit the Federal Reserve Bank of Kansas City for a tour, financial education seminar, and luncheon with Congressman Emanuel Cleaver on Monday, September 19th. Pictured with Congressman Cleaver are participating students (left to right) Chloe White, Rekailla Turner, Brittney Willingham, and Chauneisha Webster.

Six area school districts (Center, Grandview, Hickman Mills, Independence, Kansas City, and Raytown) were invited by the Federal Reserve and Congressman Cleaver) to participate in this year's competition. The contest required students to create a 3 to 5 minute video clip about how hope, engagement, and well-being impact financial success. You can view the GHS competition video at <http://youtu.be/WcrACDJ0rms>.