

RATIONALE

The purpose of Business Education is to train students in business practices, school-to-work skills, and technology to become knowledgeable economic consumers, productive workers, and citizens who have the personal qualities and attitudes to adapt to the multicultural/ethnic groups in an ever-changing environment.